

Catherine Johnson

Group General Counsel,
London Stock Exchange Group plc

Catherine Johnson has served as the Group General Counsel of London Stock Exchange Group plc (LSEG) since 2015. Ms. Johnson manages an international team of lawyers and compliance professionals and advises the LSEG board and other senior executives of LSEG on all aspects of the LSEG business. Prior to serving as Group General Counsel, Ms. Johnson held positions of increasing responsibility at LSEG beginning in 1996. She is a member of LSEG's Executive Committee and the Chair of FTSE International Limited, an FCA regulated entity in the United Kingdom. Ms. Johnson holds a law and economics degree from Kings College, Cambridge, and qualified at Herbert Smith in 1993 in its corporate division.